ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy

The ProRodeo Hall of Fame and Museum of the American Cowboy is located in Colorado Springs, CO near the foothills of Pikes Peak. You'll be greeted by "The Champ", a larger-than-life bronze statue of the legendary nine-time world champion Casey Tibbs aboard the famed saddle bronc "Necktie".

Inside you will experience first-hand the history and all the incredible stories of the only major sport that evolved from a working lifestyle. You will see priceless memorabilia from current World Champions and the honorary Inductees who made rodeo what it is today. Come and experience rodeo as never before and walk with the Legends.
